Mr. Lesley made some remarks on the Egyptian character of certain Hebrew names :

Mr. Lesley first described the history of the user, or Jackal-headed staff, representing victory, from its first appearance in the 4th to its habitual use in the 12th and 19th dynasties, in royal names : especially remarking on the form User-n-ra of the 5th dynasty. This name corresponds to the Hebrew name Israel, spelled ISR'AL, which an Egyptian would express by the hieroglyphic USR'RA. The origin of the personal name is given in the well known Scripture legend of Jacob wrestling with and prevailing over a mysterious visitor, in the night preceding his momentous interview with his brother Esau. This name, Esau (עֵשָׂו, èsu), Mr. Lesley identified with the Edomite Shasu, who successfully invaded Egypt at the beginning of the 19th dynasty, but were the principal foreign enemies of Egypt on the east for some centuries earlier.

The Publication Committee reported that they had resolved that Commodore McCauley's Egyptian Vocabulary be placed in the hands of the lithographer, to be printed as soon as practicable.
